

PRESS RELEASE

NAMING HOPKINTON'S NEW ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

The Hopkinton Public Schools needs to name its new elementary school, the replacement to the Elmwood School, and we are looking for the community's input.

HOW THE PROCESS WORKS

The Hopkinton School Committee, in keeping with their Policy FF-Naming of Facilities or Events, is beginning the process of naming the Elmwood School replacement building, which will be a grade 2-4 school situated next to the Marathon Elementary School on Hayden Rowe Street. On Thursday evening, January 18th, at their regularly scheduled meeting, the Committee publicly announced their intent to name the new building.

HOW YOU CAN SHARE YOUR IDEAS

Two opportunities at regular School Committee meetings will be available for community members to share suggestions for the name of the new building:

- Thursday, February 1st
- Thursday, February 15th

People may also share suggestions with the Superintendent of Schools by email at ccavanaugh@hopkinton.k12.ma.us or gwagar@hopkinton.k12.ma.us

The official naming of the Elmwood replacement school will take place at the School Committee meeting of March 21, 2024.

Interested persons who have questions about the process may reach out to the Superintendent's Office.
